About the Nomadic Press Black Writers Fund (NPBWF):

At Nomadic Press, we are proud of our recent work in supporting Black writers through our initiative, the Nomadic Press Black Writers Fund (NPBWF), and we'd like to thank those who have contributed to the fund. Our mission is to level the playing field for Black writers.

The Fall 2021 fundraiser enabled us to provide $3,500 to our roster of 24 Black writers, which allowed us to provide $143 to each writer. In 2022, we aim to raise $8,000 to support 32 Black writers with $250 each. We hope that you consider donating to the fund. No donation is too small (or too big).
